DETAILED ACTION

I. Claims 1-19 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

II. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372:

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1:

1. Claims 1-3, 8-10, 15-16 and 19, drawn to a peptide comprising the sequence of amino acid selected from the sequence 13-39 of the HARP factor or the sequence 65-97 of the HARP factor, a pharmaceutical composition comprising said peptide and one or more pharmaceutically acceptable excipient, a method for preparing a medicament comprising adding said peptide to a pharmaceutically acceptable vehicle.
2. Claim 6, drawn to a method of production of a peptide comprising the sequence of amino acid selected from the sequence 13-39 of the HARP factor and the sequence 65-97 of the HARP factor comprising the synthesis of the said peptide by chemical means.
3. Claims 4-5, and 11-14, drawn to a nucleic acid comprising a sequence coding for a peptide comprising the sequence of amino acid selected from the sequence 13-39 of the HARP factor and the sequence 65-97 of the HARP factor and a pharmaceutical composition comprising said nucleic acid.
4. Claims 7 and 17-18, drawn to a method for producing a peptide the sequence of amino acid selected from the sequence 13-39 of the HARP factor or the sequence 65-97 of the HARP factor in which a vector containing said nucleic acid that encodes said peptide, and a method for preparing a medicament comprising adding said nucleic acid to said medicament.

Art Unit: 1644

The inventions listed as Groups 1-4 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Consistent with the International Search Report, the invention of Groups 1-4 was to have no special technical feature that defined the contribution over the prior art of Hampton et al (Molecular Biology of the Cell 3: 85-93, PTO1449).

Hampton et al teach a peptide such as heparin-binding growth-associated molecule (HB-BAM) comprising the claimed amino acid sequence 13-39 of the HARP factor (see page 89, sequence in Figure 2, residues 13-40 of the reference sequence, in particular). The term "comprising" is open-ended. It expands the claimed peptide to read on the reference peptide.

Since Applicant's inventions do not contribute a special technical feature when viewed over the prior art they do not have single general inventive concept and lack unity of invention.

- III. Accordingly, Groups 1-4 are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept and restriction is proper.
- IV. Applicant is advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed.
- V. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until all claims to the elected product claim are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
